

Application Checklist

New to Washington Healthplanfinder™?

When you apply for coverage, you'll need to provide some information about you and your household. Here's everything you'll need to finish your application.

What you'll need to apply

Gather the following information about everyone in your household applying for coverage.

Legal name(s) of all household members

Tax filing status

Birthdates for household members

Current health plan information (if you have one)

Home and mailing address

Tribal membership (if enrolled in a federally-recognized tribe)

Social Security number or immigration documents, if applicable*

Income information (recent pay stubs, tax return, or W-2)

*Individuals without a Social Security number and undocumented individuals are still able to apply.
